

Innovative High-Speed Action Game

It's the Kingdom versus the Empire in Waterborne Warfare!

In the future, something has caused nearly all the dry land on Earth to sink beneath the waves. Mankind survived, however, managing to build new nations and civilisations on the few remaining spots of dry land, as well as some ruins poking above the surface. In this watery world, players take on the roles of soldiers in the Royal Army, fighting the Evil Empire, which seeks to conquer the world.
