At the end of Chin's Dynasty, the government was weakened by corruption; they were attacked by foreign forces. The people were living in misery and quite unsatisfied with the situation. They didn't believe in the government anymore, and turned their faith back to religion.

The White Lotus Sect saw the opportunity and took over. They claimed to help the government to defeat foreigners and bring peace to the world. The Ideology was quickly accepted. Everything related with the Western world was killed or destroyed.

Anyone against this principal was considered an enemy and accused of being bound with the devil. Dragon of "Martial Master" and Master Huang of "Po Chi Lin" could not accept these outrageous behaviors, so they joined together and prevented much bloodshed.

One day the leader of White Lotus Sect sent an invitation to Dragon and Master Huang, but Dragon's Disciples saw this as an entrapment and recommended they wait for Master Huang, who was out of town collecting medicine. The Master did not want to lose this opportunity to make peace and went alone. Unfortunately, he was captured and put in prison. Both parties started confrontation and have struggled since then.

Now Dangers are hidden all over the place. Who is capable of resolving this situation? Let's find out!
